Holtsville, NY - On Saturday, December 7, 2013, Councilwoman Kepert attended Brookhaven Town's annual Santa Comes to Longwood Estate event. Holiday joy was all around at the event which included a model train display, Dickens characters, hot chocolate, and the chance to meet with Santa.

"The Longwood Estate is a great place to bring the kids to visit Santa," said Councilwoman Kepert. "The kids are, of course, always excited to see Santa, and the whole family gets to enjoy the beautiful decorations, hot chocolate, and candy canes."
